Member Benefits

Access CERC's Active Needs Database: Interactive bulletin board of commercial real estate "Needs" posted by real estate brokers, company representatives and economic development professionals. Municipal officials can view the active needs and assist economic activity in their city/town by forwarding these needs to the appropriate broker or property owners that may have listings that match the desired criteria.

Municipal profile in the Member Directory: Augment your marketing efforts by providing a detailed description of the town or city.

Hot Link from Municipal ED website: Link to properties listed in the SiteFinder database in your municipality, regardless of the broker or owner.

Maintain database of commercial properties: Use your SiteFinder member administration area to maintain a database of local real estate. You can keep unavailable property "Inactive" for future reference.

Detailed demographic reports on each property profile: All SiteFinder property listings are linked to detailed demographic reports and mapping options that you can access and print or email for free. Additional economic development data for the municipality formulated to IEDC standards is available through a link to E.D.D.I.

Post upcoming real estate events on www.CTSiteFinder.com: Many municipalities take advantage of this opportunity to promote real estate related events, site tours etc.
